

1GC | Family Law

Anna Lavelle

Year of Call: 2016

Practice Overview

Anna joined chambers in September 2018 after the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Julien Foster, Duncan Watson and Rachel Gillman.

Prior to joining chambers, Anna worked as a paralegal at Creighton and Partners and gained experience in complex private and public law children matters.

Anna is building a broad practice which reflects the range of chambers' expertise. She welcomes instructions across the full spectrum of family law. Anna has also been instructed as junior counsel in legally and factually complex public law cases in the High Court and also in the Court of Protection.

Anna accepts public access instructions.

Children (Private Law)

Anna regularly represents clients who are involved in private children proceedings.

Anna has particular experience of representing parties in cases involving parental alienation and intractable contact disputes. This has included cases where the court has considered transferring residence.

She has a particular interest in applications for permission to relocate with children and has represented parents in applications for relocation both internally and internationally, including to non-Hague Convention countries.

Children (Public Law)

Anna has experience of care and other public children proceedings. She has represented the local authority, parents and children including where allegations of neglect, abuse, non-accidental injury, mental health issues and drug/alcohol abuse have been made.

Anna also has experience in applications for secure accommodation and deprivation of liberty orders representing the child, parents and the local authority.

Family Finance & Property

Anna has broad experience in the family finance field and she regularly represents parties at FDAs, FDRs, Preliminary and Final Hearings. She also welcomes instructions for advisory work and drafting.

She has experience of cases involving add-back, non-disclosure, non-matrimonial property, foreign assets and company assets

Domestic Violence & Injunctions

Anna regularly represents clients who are involved in Family Law Act 1996 proceedings, including proceedings involving allegations of serious domestic abuse and where those applications are linked to Children Act 1989 proceedings. She has extensive experience of applications for non-molestation orders and occupation orders and of the different types of hearing, including without notice hearings, return dates, directions hearings and final hearings.

Court of Protection

Anna is developing her practice in the Court of Protection. Anna has particular experience in cases involving capacity to consent to sexual relations and marriage.

Notable Cases

A, B And C (Children), Re [2021] EWCA Civ 451 (01 April 2021)

M (Children) v Wiltshire Council & Ors [2020] EWCA Civ 1717 (18 December 2020)

NB, Re (Consent to sex) [2019] EWCOP 17 (07 May 2019)

London Borough of Tower Hamlets v NB (Consent to Sex) [2019] EWCOP 27 (16 July 2019)

What the directories say

"Anna is extremely thorough. She has a great manner with clients that instantly puts them at ease. She is very responsive, and her advocacy is calm, measured and convincing, one to watch." Rising Star - Legal 500, 2024

"Anna is an excellent advocate and presented the client's case well, even in difficulties. She adapted well to the opponent's strange position and is able to think on her feet and take cues from the judge. She remained client focused throughout and well prepared." Rising Star - Legal 500, 2023

Education

BA (Hons) History, Bristol University

GDL, Distinction, City University

BPTC, Outstanding, City University

Awards

The William Rose Memorial Prize for Excellence in Drafting

Memberships & Associations

Association of Lawyers for Children

Court of Protection Bar Association

Family Law Bar Association

Honourable Society of the Inner Temple

Resolution

Seminars, Publications and Training

Anna writes and lectures on a range of family law topics. She has published articles for Lexis Nexis and has provided case summaries for Family Law week.

Anna has also contributed to the 1GC book 'Applications under Schedule 1 to the Children Act 1989'.

She gave a webinar on "Contact in the time of Quarantine" as part of the 1GC Family Law Webinar Series (May 2020).