

1GC | Family Law

Beth Hibbert

Year of Call: 2020

Practice Overview

Beth joined Chambers in September 2021 after completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Philip Perrins, Laura Briggs and Richard Jones. Beth is building a broad practice and welcomes instructions across the full spectrum of family law.

Beth is a qualified child protection social worker and before joining chambers spent 3 years working for two London local authorities. Her experience includes working with vulnerable children and families with a wide range of issues, completing assessments, carrying out interventions and writing court reports for public and private proceedings.

During her legal studies Beth volunteered for the National Centre for Domestic Violence, attending court with applicants as a McKenzie Friend and drafting witness statements on behalf of applicants seeking non-molestation and occupation orders. During her BPTC year, Beth worked as a visiting lecturer at City University teaching undergraduate law.
