

1GC | Family Law

Elena MacLeod

Year of Call: 2007

Practice Overview

Elena's practice covers a broad range of family law including public and private children cases and family finance. Areas of expertise and specialisation include ancillary relief, cohabitation disputes and Schedule 1 applications; care proceedings and other disputes involving children.

She acts on behalf of parents, children and Local Authorities in public law cases, spouses in ancillary relief applications and she has expertise in private children cases including international and national relocation cases as well as intractable contact and residence disputes. She represents parties at fact-finding hearings and contested final hearings involving allegations of domestic violence, sexual abuse, and drug or alcohol abuse.

Children (Private Law)

Children (Public Law)

Family Finance & Property

Domestic Violence & Injunctions

International Family Law

Education

LLB (Hons) 1st Class, University of Exeter

Appointments

BVC, Inns of Court School of Law

Awards

Paul Heim Memorial Prize

Memberships & Associations

Member Family Law Bar Association

Personal

Languages, travel, winter sports when possible, and long country walks, especially in the Highlands.

Lives in London with her husband, sons and whippet.