Emma Hudson

Year of Call: 1995

Practice Overview

Emma practices a broad range of Family Law. Much of Emma's work comprises of complex care cases, often with significant medical issues. Her recent cases include Re J-S \(2019\) EWCA Civ 894, which explored the novel use of electronic tagging in care proceedings, and Re A \(A Child\) \(2019\) EWCA Civ 799, which featured co-sleeping and rib fractures.

Emma is highly experienced in private law disputes about children and international law including removal from the jurisdiction.

Emma has been praised by a senior Local Authority solicitor for her 'attention to detail, her dedication and her competence, all of which form an excellent package when combined together with her personable and approachable manner.'
