Imogen Forrester

Year of Call: 2022

Practice Overview

Imogen joined Chambers as a Pupil in September 2025.

In the year prior to commencing pupillage, Imogen worked as a Judicial Assistant in the Civil Division of the Court of Appeal. In that role, she assisted on appeals across all areas of family law, preparing bench memorandums, assisting with permission to appeal applications and conducting legal research.

Imogen has previously undertaken roles as a paralegal at a Tier 1 ranked family firm and as a legal assistant at another leading family chambers. She has gained experience in complex and high net worth financial remedies disputes and public, private and international children matters. She is keen to continue building a comprehensive family law practice.

Imogen is currently supervised by Katherine Dunseath.
