

1GC | Family Law

Jessica Lee

Year of Call: 2000

Practice Overview

Jessica has a wealth of experience in all areas of family law: private law children cases, financial remedies, public law, and adoption. She is also experienced in all aspects of applications to the Court of Protection.

Jessica is adept at representing clients with learning difficulties and special needs at all court levels; including up to the Court of Appeal. Jessica has completed the Bar Council Vulnerable Witness Training through Middle Temple.

Jessica is happy to accept public access instructions.

Children (private law)

In private law disputes, Jessica is known for her experience and her calm approach in complex cases and those involving parental alienation. Jessica regularly represents parents, grandparents and children. Jessica is experienced in applications for leave to remove from the jurisdiction.

She also advises same sex couples regarding surrogacy, adoption and child arrangements.

Children (public law)

In public law cases, Jessica undertakes issues of non-accidental injuries, fictitious illness, sexual abuse, and other complex cases. She accepts applications under the inherent jurisdiction in respect of children and persons under disability. She is experienced at working on abduction applications to remove from the jurisdiction (convention and non-convention countries).

Jessica is expert at care and adoption cases. In such cases she has frequently represented local authorities, parents, Guardians, and has taken instruction via the Official Solicitor.

Court of Protection

Jessica regularly appears in the Court of Protection.

Family finance & property

Jessica is experienced in all areas of financial remedy applications, from pre-proceedings negotiations, onwards through to final hearings. She has also worked on pre-nuptial agreements as well as on drafting and advisory work.

Other Information

Jessica was the Member of Parliament for Erewash 2010 – 2015, and Parliamentary Secretary to the Attorney General, Dominic Grieve QC MP. Whilst in Parliament, Jessica was able to raise awareness on important issues of family law, holding debates on issues such as updating the law on surrogacy and adoption reforms.

Jessica is also a former Chairman of the All Party Parliamentary Group for Pro Bono and opened the family law pro bono law clinic at BPP Law School in 2013. She was made a Fellow of the Westminster Abbey Institute in 2015, following completion of the Fellows' Programme. Her course mentor was The Rt. Hon. The Baroness Elizabeth Butler-Sloss GBE PC.

Jessica was elected as a Bencher of the Hon. Society of Middle Temple in 2018.

Jessica is an approved advocacy trainer through Middle Temple. She teaches advocacy to pupils and teaches family law on the new practitioners' programme.

Jessica has also been a Trustee of The Children's Society.

Notable Cases

H (Children) [2015] EWCA Civ 115

E, A and L (Children) [2014] EWHC B22 (Fam)

G (A Child), Re Court of Appeal (Civil Division) 31 October 2012 [2012] EWCA Civ 1377

A Council v B (Children) (Fact-finding: Adoptive Child: Artificial Insemination) Family Division, 08 March 2012 [2012] EWHC 4241 (Fam); [2013] 2 F.L.R. 1229

S v. S [2009] All ER (D) 182

Education

Royal Holloway, University of London, BA (Hons) 1997

College of Law, London, CPE 1999, & BVC 2000

Called to the Bar 2000

Pupillage at 22 Old Buildings (now 42 Bedford Row) 2001

Memberships & Associations

FLBA

News and Articles

The guidelines around separate representation for the children are considered by the Court of Appeal. Jessica Lee, 42 Bedford Row represented the children, through the Children's Guardian: H (Children) [2015] EWCA CIV 115

Family law barrister, Jessica Lee MP, leads a debate in Parliament on reforming surrogacy law, describing the current law as “outdated, limited and illogical”. Hansard 14 October 2014.

Publications

Jessica is featured in: Are contracts and pre-birth orders the way forward for UK surrogacy [2015] 1FL NG&MA, by Natalie Gamble.

Article on Parliament and Family Law in Family Affairs, Spring 2014 (FLBA magazine).