Marlene Cayoun

Year of Call: 2012

Practice Overview

Marlene is recognised as a leader in her field. She is consistently listed in Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500 and early in her practice was awarded the Young Barrister of the Year Award at the Jordan's Family Law Awards 2014. She is 'regarded as a rising star by sources' and appears in law-making cases.

Marlene has a unique dual specialism in children law and in large-scale public and private inquiries. She has particular skill and experience in cases requiring the careful management of serious or sensitive allegations of harm against children. Marlene acts in all levels of court and has appeared in both the High Court and Court of Appeal with and without a leader.

Children (Private Law)

Marlene frequently acts for parents and children in section 8 Children Act 1989 applications, including those which feature serious allegations, non-compliance and enforcement, require a rule 16.4 guardian, involving permission to remove children from England and Wales, and where special guardianship orders are sought. Marlene has significant experience in international cases where child abduction, jurisdiction, and surrogacy arise (including in the application of the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008).

Marlene also regularly acts for parents and children involved in Hague Convention applications, representing applicants and defenders in the High Court. She also acts and advises in cases involving international movement of children for reasons to do with change of residence and surrogacy.

Notable cases in private children law and international family law in which Marlene has acted include:

Z (A Child) (Surrogacy) [2022] EWFC 18

AI M (Children) [2020] EWCA Civ 283

Re K (Forced Marriage: Passport Order) [2020] EWCA Civ 190

Children (Public Law)

Marlene has a busy practice in Children Act 1989 Part IV and V applications. She is experienced in matters that are complicated by chronic and serious allegations of abuse, neglect, fictitious or induced injury, and child sexual abuse and exploitation. She regularly represents parties involved in adoption applications and challenges. Marlene accepts instructions from local authorities, parents and children. She acts in complex multi-day trials where extensive findings were sought, including of induced illness and child sexual abuse.

Notable cases in public children law in which Marlene has acted include:

Re X (A Child) (No 4) [2018] EWHC 1815 (Fam)

Re X (A Child) (No 3) [2016] EWHC 2755 (Fam)

In the Matter of D (A Child) (No 2) [2015] EWFC 2

In the Matter of D (A Child) [2014] EWFC 39

Public Law and Inquiries

Marlene is in demand as a junior in large-scale public and private inquiries. She is presently instructed as Junior Counsel to the Covid-19 Inquiry, focussing on the impact of the pandemic on children and young people across the UK. She is also currently acting as Junior Counsel for a Core Participant in the Post Office Horizons IT Inquiry.

Marlene has previously acted as Junior Counsel to the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse and to the Infected Blood Inquiry.

Marlene has also accepted instructions in respect of external inquiries commissioned by private organisations, such as the Review of Non-Recent Child Sexual Abuse at Chelsea Football Club led by Charles Geekie KC.

Additionally, Marlene's practice has a focus on questions of public policy in family law. She has acted in test cases involving issues of legal aid, human rights and the lawfulness of actions taken by public bodies.

Domestic Violence & Injunctions

Marlene often represents clients who are seeking or responding to applications for injunctions linked to domestic violence or occupation of the family home.
