

1GC | Family Law

Oliver Taylor

Year of Call: 2024

Practice Overview

Oliver joined Chambers as a Pupil in September 2024.

Oliver previously worked as a researcher at the BBC, spending time in network and local news, current affairs and the World Service.

Throughout his legal studies, Oliver was a volunteer advocate and student director of the School Exclusion Project. He represented parents at appeal panels whose children had been permanently excluded from school.

Oliver is a member of the governing board of Stepney All Saints School in Tower Hamlets. He is the link governor for sixth form pastoral care, IT safeguarding and political sciences.

Oliver is currently supervised by Katherine Dunseath.

Education

BA (Hons) History, University of Manchester (2018)

GDL, City, University of London (2023)

BVS, City, University of London (2024)

Awards

Thomas Brown Prize, University of Manchester (2018)

Jules Thorn Scholarship, Middle Temple (GDL, 2022 and BVS, 2023)

City Law School Scholarship for Academic Excellence (2023)

Memberships & Associations

Honourable Society of the Middle Temple

Family Law Bar Association