

1GC | Family Law

Richard Jones

Year of Call: 2003

Practice Overview

Richard's practice covers the full range of serious children cases both in the public and private sphere. In the private law field his work encompasses the full array of disputes, covering both international leave to remove and internal relocations as well as matters relating to alleged parental alienation and intractable disputes. Richard's work also has an increasing focus on both child abduction as well as surrogacy and parental order applications relating to s.54 of the HFEA 2008.

In the public law field Richard is frequently instructed by both local authorities and parents in complex care proceedings involving disputed medical evidence and serious allegations of physical or emotional harm. Richard also is often instructed of behalf of Children's Guardians and has appeared at all court levels from the Court of Appeal down.

Children (public law)

In the public law arena, Richard represents the full range of parties be it for a local authority, the parents or guardian and has undertaken a wide variety of cases dealing with allegations of serious sexual abuse and NAI. Of late Richard has engaged in many cases involving applications for Special Guardianship Orders. Several of his more recent cases have encompassed matters relating to radicalisation and public law proceedings that involve overseas adoptions.

Notable cases include:

Re A and B (Children Restrictions on Parental Responsibility Radicalisation and Extremism)
[2016] EWFC40; [2016] 2 FLR 977

[2014] EWHC 4436 (Fam) [2015] 2 FLR 1358

Children (private law)

His private law work includes disputes relating to child arrangements orders as well as leave to remove applications. Several of his more recent cases focus on fact finding hearings where alleged parental alienation has been an issue.

In addition to cases where he represents parents, Richard also undertakes work on behalf of r 16.4 Guardian's in complex and intractable disputes.

Richard has appeared in several cases concerning surrogacy and parental order applications relating to s.54 of the HFEA 2008.

Notable cases include:

Re M (Child) [2017] EWCA Civ 228

Re A B (Surrogacy Consent) [2016] EWHC 2643 (Fam)

Re RH (Parental Alienation) [2019] EWHC 2723 (Fam) - Richard recently secured a transfer of living arrangements of a child to his father in parental alienation case.

International family law

The number of family law cases with an international element is fast increasing and Richard has particular expertise in child cases relating to child abduction be in for the Applicants or Respondents.

In addition to this Richard has represented local authorities in public law proceedings relating to placement of children overseas.

Notable cases include:

C v S [2014] EWHC 3799 (Fam)

Domestic violence & injunctions

Richard undertakes the full range of family law injunctions both in relation to Non Molestation/Occupation Orders and also Human Rights Act injunctions.

Mediation

Richard undertakes both single and co mediation in chambers and is a member of FMA.

Modern families & surrogacy

Richard is increasingly instructed in applications involving surrogacy and appeared in the Court of Appeal (being led by Deirdre Fottrell QC) in the case of Re M (Child) [2017] EWCA Civ 228.

Richard was also instructed in the case of Re AB (Surrogacy Consent) [2016] EWHC 2643 (Fam) which highlighted the current restrictions in respect of the court being able to make a parental order.

What the directories say

2018/19: 'Loved by the courts and clients alike.' Legal 500

"He is proactive and passionate on behalf of his clients." "He's a brilliant and confident lawyer, who is very sharp and able." Chambers UK

2018: "Calm, caring and terribly good, he's great to work with and so reliable whether the case is complex or simple." Chambers UK

2017: Recognised for his expertise in challenging private law children proceedings and noted for his effective client manner. He handles a large volume of complex cases relating to parents seeking contact with their children and exhibits strength in the growing area of surrogacy.

"One of the loveliest and most effective advocates; he's so erudite and handles sensitive cases perfectly, taking exactly the right approach. He also has great technical expertise." Chambers UK

2016: An example of a barrister who really gets to the bottom of the family dynamics involved in a case. Peers praise his willingness to go above and beyond. Jones focuses on private children matters and international abduction cases.

"He really cares about the clients and the children involved, and makes a concerted effort to understand what's important to them." Chambers UK

2015: A good choice for both private and public children law matters, and someone with a particular strength in international proceedings such as child abduction cases. He is regularly instructed by local authorities, guardians and parents in public law proceedings relating to non-accidental injury and the emotional abuse of children.

"He gets on well with the clients, takes a lot of trouble with his cases, and is now someone with a strong following." Chambers UK

2014: One of the set's rising stars, Richard Jones is receiving increasingly positive feedback from the market. His expertise lies in private and public law children law matters.

"Totally reliable and a hard worker, he always fully reads the papers and memorises them. Clients think he is simply superb." Chambers UK

Education

MA (Hons) Cantab; Emmanuel College, Cambridge University
Duke of Edinburgh Scholarship 2003
National Weekly Law Reports Mooting Champion 2001
Trained mediator

Memberships & Associations

Family Law Bar Association (FLBA)
Family Mediators Association (FMA) and of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

Association of Lawyers for Children
Bar Council Member 2015-2017
National Committee Member FLBA 2015-2017

Publications

Co-author of DIY Divorce & Separation: The Expert Guide to Representing Yourself (Jordan Publishing), 2014 <http://diydivorce.familylaw.co.uk/1GC-Blog>

The Inherent Jurisdiction of the high court in light of Re SA: Court of Protection; Nova Law

Mediation in the Context of Child Abduction: Nova Law

Mediation in International Family Law Disputes: International Family Law

Richard is a contributor to "Key Authorities in Family Law" which is published quarterly by Nova Law and Finance.

'Latest Developments in the Field of Child Abduction' : 7th June 2011
Case Law in 2010: The cases you need to know'

Personal Interests

History, Theology and the arts.