

1GC | Family Law

Sylvester McIlwain

Year of Call: 1985

Practice Overview

Sylvester has had a varied practice, having initially practiced in family, criminal and general common law. He has specialised in family law since 1999 and now concentrates primarily on the field of public law.

In public law he represents local authorities, parents and children in care proceedings at all levels.

In addition he undertakes private children work and family finance.

Sylvester also undertakes Court of Protection work.

Children (public law)

Children (private law)

Family finance & property

Domestic violence & injunctions

International family law

Notable Cases

RMM v HW & Ors [2010] EWCA Civ 1467 (17 December 2010)

Education

LLB (Hons)

Memberships & Associations

Member Family Law Bar Association

Member Human Rights Lawyers Association

Personal

Enjoys music, travel and the arts.