Tom Wilson

Year of Call: 2013

Practice Overview

Tom's practice encompasses all areas of the law relating to children, including public and private law proceedings, adoption, child abduction, and cases concerning donor-conceived children. He regularly appears in complex, high profile or groundbreaking cases, including those with international elements. He has been instructed at all levels of court, including the High Court, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court.

Tom was shortlisted for Young Family Law Barrister of the Year in 2017 and for Junior Family Law Barrister of the Year in 2020. He is described by Chambers and Partners as 'a rising star and silk of the future' and 'an experienced champion of alternative family work. His preparation is excellent'.

Children (Public Law)

Tom acts in care, adoption and other public law proceedings, representing parents, local authorities, children and other family members.

Tom is regularly instructed in complex cases, including those involving allegations of non-accidental injury, child death, sexual abuse and radicalisation.

Tom is also regularly instructed to advise and act in both domestic and international adoption proceedings, including many of the recent decisions concerning applications to revoke an adoption order. He has appeared in the Family Court, High Court, and Court of Appeal on behalf of birth parents, prospective adopters, and children.
